

Structural iron and steel being delivered for new kitchen.

View toward Nuuanu Pali from Ward #2 (rear)
a portion of Fort Shafter shows in the distance at the base of the mountain range.

Sergeant Major's Quarters recently repaired and repainted throughout. (For a number of years these quarters had been occupied by a medical officer.)

Hospital flower garden recently laid out.

New barracks in course of construction by F.E.R.A. labor and post labor.

New barracks to accommodate 30 men being erected by F.E.R.A. labor. Cost $2,700.00, estimated worth $5,000.00 when finished.

New bungalow recreation hall practically completed, 78 x 26 feet, and adjacent to new barracks. Erected with F.E.R.A. labor and E & R funds.

(Rear)

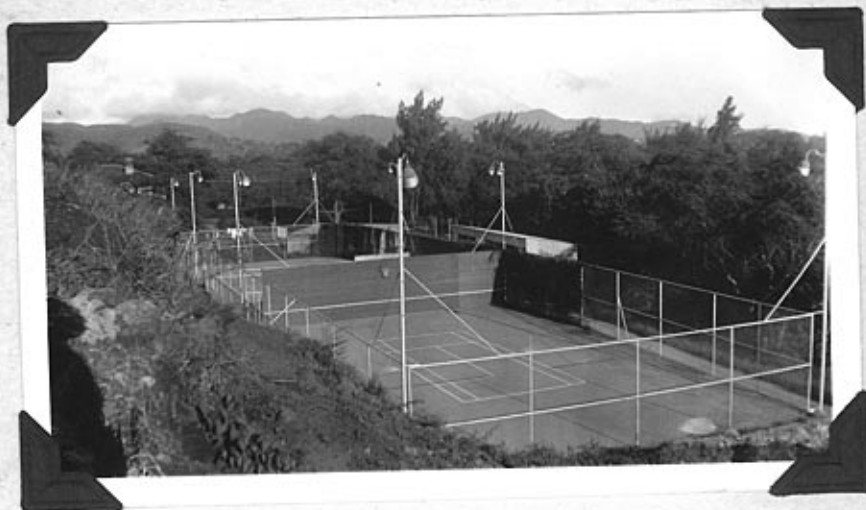

Recreation hall practically completed.

(Front)

The old barracks, overcrowded and in need of repair. This building will be remodeled and repainted with F.E.R.A. labor.

The new tennis courts erected and lighted by the E & R fund at a cost of $2,500.00.
(10-2,000 Watt lamps are used.)

Kennedy Avenue at rear of Post Exchange.
(Road in need of repair.)

New barracks building accomodating 30 men.
It contains built-in lockers, excellent bathing and laundry facilities and a suite for the First Sergeant of the Detachment. Constructed by the F.E.R.A. on plans designed by the Q.M.C.U.S.
Army. (120 x 26 feet.)

X-Ray and Operating pavilion, front of hospital.

Quartermaster office and warehouse No. 1., formerly used as a linen room.

The cliffs at the rear of the hospital, trails going in in preparation of landscaping.

Some reclaimed jungle, showing tennis court and basket ball courts in distance.